

Children's Mental Health Matters:

An Essential Part
of Primary Care

A conference, focusing on the impact of ADHD
and other mental health concerns across the lifespan.

Featuring:

a workshop and keynote address from Rosemary Tannock, PhD, a leading
specialist on ADHD,
anxiety and associated
learning disorders.

Capital
Health

SAVE THESE DATES:
November 18-19, 2005

Edmonton,
Alberta, Canada

For more info, contact grhedservices@cha.ab.ca

Children's Mental Health Matters

An Essential Part
of Primary Care

Conference for family physicians,
pediatricians, child
psychiatrists and allied health professionals.

EXTRA: Half-day clinical workshop for physicians and mental health professionals.

Featured speaker:

Rosemary Tannock, PhD
Senior Research Scientist, Brain & Behaviour Research (Psychiatry),
The Hospital for Sick Children;
Associate Professor of Psychiatry, University of Toronto

Resource fair, workshops:
educational, practical and interactive

Capital
Health